

‘Goodness and Mercy’ Progression Outcomes Statements
(Sex Education)
mapped to Jigsaw, the mindful approach to PSHE

This document aims to support Church of England schools using Jigsaw PSHE to see how Jigsaw aligns to and works with ‘Goodness and Mercy’ It takes the Progression Outcomes Statements from the Diocese of Bristol ‘Goodness and Mercy’ programme and gives examples of where this topic is evident within primary and secondary Jigsaw PSHE.

As Jigsaw is a spiral curriculum, where topics are introduced and learning built week on week and year on year, the areas listed in the bullet points are or could be covered progressively throughout the lessons listed. For detail of how Jigsaw, the mindful approach to PSHE, fully meets the DfE Statutory RSHE Guidance in lesson-by-lesson detail, please see our Jigsaw mapping documents.

The areas in orange, which are specifically the remit of Church Schools, are not detailed explicitly in Jigsaw PSHE, but could easily be included at the teacher’s discretion.

	Schools may decide to teach these units in different Key Stages at secondary level, as long as outcomes are met by the end of Key Stage 4. Sex education has frequent overlap with relationships education and they should not be seen as distinct. Sex education also overlaps with health education and science so connections should be made.
The right to withdraw	At Key Stage 1 there is no sex education. At Key Stage 2 each school will decide for themselves whether they think it is appropriate to teach any elements of sex education in their context. Parents have the right to withdraw their child.		Parents have the right to withdraw their child (see sample policy).		Parents have the right to withdraw their child from up-to-and-until three terms before the child turns 16. After that point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than be withdrawn, the school should make arrangements to provide the child with sex education during one of those terms.
